DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-5, 11-18, and 23-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Carpenter et al.

Regarding claims 1-4, 13-16, Carpenter et al., discloses a compression system with features of the claimed invention including an article having first and second portions (col. 30, line 50). The system applies a stretching force to one of the portion and means to measure the stretching force (col. 29, line 57).

Regarding claims 5, 17, the cited art shows the provision for comparing the result with a predetermined value (see claim 1, section b).

Regarding claims 11-12, 23-24, the article is a textile good or a related article.

3. Claims 6-10, 19-22 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Art Unit: 2855
